Novice Tourney Enters - Semi-Final Round Tonite

'Messiah' To Be Sung On Sunday

Handel's magnificent "Messiah" will be sung Sunday by the 258 members of the Choral Ensemble, accompanied by 40 members of the San Jose State college Symphony orchestra.

The musical performance will begin at 3:30 p.m. in the Morris Dailey auditorium. Dr. Lyle Downey, Music department head, will conduct the oratorio.

"No composer has approached the transcendent grandeur of Handel's oratorio," according to W. M. Derthick in his "Manual of Music." The perfection of the portrayal of massive events by chorus voices has been awarded to Handel by Derthick.

Ten soloists will be featured in the event. They are: Sopranos Gloria Surian Collins, Yvonne Michie and Shirley Underhill; altos, Rosalind Rogers, Evelyn Shaffer and Joanne Soderstrom; tenors, Arthur Huff and John Morrison; baritones, Paul Collins and Ray Johnson.

Dr. Downey explained that the orchestration used by the group follows closely the original Handel manuscript.

Dr. J. M. Coopersmith, editor of the orchestration, did more than two years' research discovering and copying the parts to the "Messiah" which had been sold to various collectors throughout the world.

"We have received more requests for the 'Messiah' than any other musical work performed by the Music department," stated Dr. Downey.

Wintermist Bids Available

"Bids for the annual Wintermist dance Saturday still are available at the Library arch, or, if it is raining, at Morris Dailey auditorium," Cliff Lindsey, chairman of the Social Affairs committee, said yesterday.

Members of the committee, with Alice Hayes in charge, are distributing the bids free to ASB card holders, he said. The admission cards will also be handed out at the door of the Civic auditorium the night of the dance.

Spartans will dance to the music of Ernie Hechscher and his band from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., according to Lindsey. For the seasonal affair, the auditorium will be transformed into a "winter wonderland," complete with lighted Christmas tree, red picket fence and Mr. and Mrs. Snowman.

Semi-formal attire will be appropriate for the evening, Lindsey said.

Oriental, Russian Courses Offered

To aid understanding of the Near East, two courses, one in Oriental literature and the other in the Russian novel, will be added to the English department curriculum next quarter.

Dr. Raymond Barry, English department head, stated that the increased interest in the Orient and the looming of Russia on the horizon is the primary reason that the classes are offered.

Three units will be given for each of the classes. Oriental literature will be designated English 119, and the Russian novel course will be English 140.

Seats Still Open For 'Swan' Show

"Opening night tickets still are available for Molnar's sophisticated comedy, 'The Swan,'" Mrs. Virginia Vogel, Speech department secretary, announced yesterday afternoon.

"An excellent selection of seats for all the other performances also is available, but students are advised to purchase their tickets early to be assured of good seats," she added.

Tickets may be purchased in the Speech office for 60 cents by ASB members. Non cardholders and the general public must pay 90 cents for seats. The play will be presented for the first time Friday and will run through Dec. 12, with the exception of Sunday evening.

UN Jets Defeat Red MIGs in Korean Air Fight; Reds Suggest Four Neutral Observers in Korea

Eighth Army Headquarters, Korea.—United Nations jet planes destroyed or damaged 10 Russian-made jets yesterday in a series of blazing battles over North Korea. Five Red planes were destroyed and five damaged. No damage to any U.N. plane was reported by the 5th Air Force in Wednesday's fighting.

It was the 10th straight day of deadly jet-to-jet battles, in which U.N. pilots had fought the Russian-made MIG-15 jets at great odds and won.

Communies Want Observers
Panmunjom, Korea.—The Communists suggested two Communist and two non-Communist countries yesterday to supply "neutral observers" for a Korean armistice.

Red representatives told U.N. delegates in a subcommittee meeting that observers from Sweden, Switzerland and Communist Poland and Czechoslovakia would be acceptable to them.

Archbishop Released
Zagreb, Yugoslavia.—Archbishop

Lyke, college humor magazine, will go on sale at 7 a.m. Wednesday, at the Library arch, the Commerce wing, and in front of the Home Economics building, Editor Dave Woods said yesterday.

According to Woods, the issue will contain three photographic sections, a double-page cartoon spread and a discussion forum on sororities and fraternities.

"It is hoped by Staff members and editors that the magazine will please both the administration and students," said Woods. "Emphasis has been placed on art, although there are several articles."

Next quarter, for the first time, the three groups which compose the Lyke staff will meet together at 1:30 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The art, editorial and advertising departments previously met separately.

Mr. Carl Hoffmann and Mrs. Dolores Spurgeon of the Journalism department advise the advertising and editorial staffs, respectively. Miss Marion Moreland of the Art department is adviser to the art staff.

The Weather

Sat at a mahogany table drinking claret with Monsoon Pete last night. The wind was making weird sounds in the potted plants and Hepziah, the parrot, was clutching her bamboo perch for dear life.

"Dead man's chest, but we're in for nasty weather," muttered Pete. "Yo ho! Rain'll beat a hole in yer skull, winds'll tear yer arm off—and that ain't all. It's sure perfect weather for catching cold."

I gulped like the callow coward I am and said, "What can we do?"

"Batten the hatches, batten the hatches—eek!" squawked Hepziah.

Twenty-five Bouts Slated

Twenty-five matches go through the ropes in tonight's semi-final round of the 15th Annual Novice Boxing Tournament. The evening's bouts will commence at 7:30 o'clock in the Men's gym.

The all-time record tourney entry list will find 18 events scheduled in the novice division and seven in the junior tourney.

Kappa Alpha-Delta Gamma, first night leaders with five points, send eight boxers into the ring in quest of the team title.

Five weight divisions will be contested for the first time, including the 190 and heavyweight brackets. The unlimited division finds Phil O'Connor, a 215-pounder, battling Chuck Godshall, and Glen Baum, a slight 210, trading beef with PeWee Stevensen.

Back for a second try after an impressive first night appearance will be Bob Osborne, who TKO'd Dick Whalley in the opening round of his 165-pound match. Al Nethercut will oppose Osborne in what could be the top card of the evening as the former also won via the KO route with a second round knockdown of Rod Wright.

Fellow griddier, Al Matthews, Osborne's running mate during the past football season, will make his ring debut against Steve Mitchell, in the junior 155-pound division.

Another deck artist, 175-pound Ed Marcroft, meets newcomer Ted Ropolo in another feature attraction. Marcroft leveled Don Gillespie with an assortment of hard punches in the final round.

Cross country man, Larry Purley, will confine his talents inside the ropes when he encounters Paul Morgan, in the 130-pound novice class.

Student Govt. To Get $14,000

Bill Severns, ASB treasurer, yesterday told the Student Council that the ASB card fee "will mean about $14,000 for student government the next two quarters."

He said that this estimate was "theoretically" based on the present enrollment.

The council agreed:

1. To appoint Norm Reger treasurer of the Associated Men Students.

2. To receive applications until Dec. 12 for the post of Junior Justice of the Student Court, which was vacated by Ken Black.

3. To purchase permanent 1950 Homecoming trophies for five organizations which were promised these awards, but never received them.

4. To allow the Student Y and Newman club to sell Christmas cards with Christmas themes on campus Dec. 3-14.

5. To permit the Kappa Tau fraternity to erect posters publicizing their charity drive to provide Christmas dinners for needy families.

Pre-Professionals Need Office OK

All pre-professional students who plan to transfer to other universities or colleges must have their programs for next quarter approved in Room 110 by Dec. 14, Mrs. Lillian Scott, assistant to Dean of Instruction Jay C. Elder, announced yesterday.

Fifth Asilomar Confab Will Be Held Dec. 7, 8, 9

The fifth annual Asilomar conference, sponsored by the World Affairs Council of Northern California, will be held Dec. 7, 8 and 9, according to Dr. George Bruntz, associate professor of history and political science.

All students are welcome to attend the meeting, which is expected to draw about 500 people, Dr. Bruntz said. Those interested should contact him in Room 14.

Students already signed up to attend are Sanford Weinberg, Ann Buitrago, Siouss Nownejad and Roger Over.

Charles Malik, Soviet representative to the United Nations, will deliver an address on the U.N. and Near Eastern problems on Friday, Dr. Bruntz said.

"The Near East is the greatest single threat to world peace in the world today," Dr. Bruntz said. "Strong nationalistic feelings among its people, and several fields of interest which have caused friction between Eastern and Western powers make this a more dangerous spot than Korea."

Problems of the Middle East will be the subject of most of the speeches, made by men who who are experienced in their fields. Addresses for Friday will be "The Political Geography and Economic Resources of the Middle East," and "The Strengths and Weaknesses of Middle East Society."

The Saturday session will cover the topics: "International Rivalries in the Middle East Before and Since World War I," "External Threats and Internal Tensions in the Middle East," "The Middle East Looks at United States Policy," "Some Basic Issues and Vital Questions in the Middle East Today," "The Strategic Importance of Middle East Oil," and "American Foreign Policy Toward the Middle East Today."

"What Can We Do to Strengthen the Middle East" will be the concluding address on Sunday.

Singular Field Trips Replace Group Outings

Individual field trips are proving to be more satisfactory than group field trips as an instructive device in the class "Adequate House Wiring and Lighting," according to Judson Aspinwall, associate professor of industrial arts.

In the past, class instruction and demonstrations were supplemented by group field trips, to study the wiring of houses under construction, said Mr. Aspinwall. Now field trips are taken by individual students at their convenience.

Under the new plan, students make solitary visits to certain houses under construction to observe the electrical service and type of wiring. They then submit floor plans with comments on the type, class and adequacy of wiring. These plans are treated in the manner of class reports and are discussed by all members of the class.

"This method is proving more satisfactory than the former group field trips," reported Mr. Aspinwall. "The necessary knowledge is gained and there is an elimination of the necessity for students to be late or excused from other classes. Students also feel that there are improved learning possibilities since they do not feel rushed should they care to spend extra time on some detail in which they are especially interested."

Birdie Tourney Ends Tonight

Final fight for the championship in the Mixed Doubles-Double Elimination Co-Rec Badminton tournament will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Women's gym, Barbara Hoepner, tourney chairman, announced yesterday.

Teams of Joan Conway and Phil Latimer, Jacquie Lum and Bob Slover will compete in Division I, while four teams will struggle for top spot in Division II.

Players in this division are Shirley Cook and John Forbes, Gloria Pitcher and Dave Dimton, Pat Ritter and Robert Baker, and Nancy Camp and Warren Van Dusen.

All these teams emerged as winners from the elimination contest held last Thursday night, Miss Hoepner said. A total of ten teams entered the tournament.

A championship certificate will be awarded to the winners tonight. Regular Co-Rec activities also will be offered this evening, according to Miss Hoepner. The sports are open to all ASB card holders.

Basketball Talks

The Associated Men Students will discuss the organization of intramural basketball teams today at 5 p.m. in the Student Union, according to Jess Aguilar, AMS president.

Students who are interested in forming teams to be entered in independent league competition are invited to attend the meeting, Aguilar said.

SJS Graduate Attains Top Government Post

Anyone doubting the benefits resulting from a knowledge of a foreign language might do well to take heed of the present status of Jack Nixon, June graduate of 1948.

According to a letter addressed to Mr. L. C. Newby, head of the Modern Language department, Nixon is employed by the United States government in Lille, France. He is head of an office in the Service of American Information, Mr. Newby said.

It is his duty, Nixon writes, to do the majority of translations in his office. He also serves in the capacity of an interpreter, when such an occasion presents itself.

Dr. Jones Attends Home Ec Confab In Fresno Today

Dr. Margaret Jones, head of the SJS Home Economics department, travels to Fresno State college today for a conference Dec. 6, 7 and 8 of all Home Economics department heads in California colleges.

The group of 14 women will discuss teacher training programs in their Home Economics departments.

Representatives from Pepperdine, Chico State college, Sacramento State college, San Francisco State college, COP, the University of California and others will attend the three-day confab.

"San Jose State college has the second largest Home Economics department in the state," said Dr. Jones. "The only department larger than ours is at the University of California."

Because all the women know each other, Dr. Jones explained, the conference will be conducted as a round-table discussion. Dr. Jones will speak on the topic, "The Requirements for a Special Secondary Credential in Home Economics."

Credential requirements are set by the state, and at each such conference there is always a disagreement on whether or not they should be changed, said Dr. Jones. "A lively exchange of ideas should follow," she said.

Gates Will Speak

Wendall N. Gates, assistant professor of art, will discuss and demonstrate the techniques of sculpturing at the Dec. 6 meeting of the Santa Cruz Art league, according to Miss Clara Bianchi, Art department secretary.

Gates is a frequent exhibitor at west coast art shows and his sculptures have taken many awards.

Thrust and Parry

We're Nogoodniks

Dear Thrust and Parry:

The Spartan Daily staff are evidently working discriminately in publishing the daily paper. This action is not correct in accordance with the Constitution of the United States.

For instance, I have handed in some News about our organization to be published by the Spartan Daily, but, as yet, this News has not appeared. On the other hand, I have seen articles in the paper which are of events that happened some time after I had handed my short article in, and it was an article which was important to the members of my group who were not able to come to our meeting.

I know too, that other groups are neglected by the staff of the Spartan Daily, and it is not right that because one of the writers belong to a certain organization his group should receive an article every day while other organizations are forgotten, and only have to wait patiently under the mercy of the Spartan Daily for their article to appear. Is this the Democracy we hear about?

I dearly hope the chief editor will respond, for such corruption is definitely going on in his group! I also wish to see our paper run without any political influence whatsoever, because if these bad intentions persist our Dear Spartan Daily will continue to heap wrath upon itself to a degree whereby it will have defeated its very purpose!!

Joseph B. Azzaoui, ASB 4553.

Vice President,

International Student Organization.

Fists Fly in Tournament Opener

KA-DG Team Gathers Early Lead in Tourney

By ROY HURLBERT and DICK RUTHERFORD

Fists were flying as the lid was ripped off Dee Portal's Fifteenth Annual Novice Boxing Tournament and the Second Annual Junior Tourney last night in the Men's gym before a near-capacity house.

Semi-finals are slated tonight, same time, same place, with the survivors dueling for titles tomorrow night in the wind-up.

Last night's spectacle was a rousing inaugural session producing 15 novice winners and three junior winners. Two bouts were held in the afternoon, a third being settled via forfeit.

Kappa Alpha jumped into an early tournament lead with five wins yesterday. Two were turned in by rugged Tony Russo, 145-lb. novice battler. Russo decisioned Gene Unger of SAE in an afternoon bout, then returned in the evening to take a three round verdict over Jim Benner of Sigma Pi. Benner triumphed over Lambda Chi Alpha's Lloyd Neutz in an afternoon test. Doug Wilson and Ward Carson are managing KA's ringmen.

Kappa Tau, piloted by Jack Scheberies and Jim Burdick, and Phi Kappa Alpha, directed by Paul Reuter and Bill Finch, had three victorious battlers apiece at the end of last night's card.

Delta Sigma Phi, Lambda Chi Alpha and Delta Sigma and Delta Sigma Gamma each got two victories. Sigma Pi, Sigma Sigma, Theta Chi and Delta Upsilon all had one winner apiece.

Fourteen of the bouts last night went the distance, with four ending via the TKO route. Several of the novice scraps were exceptional for boys who had never before fought competitively.

Freshman Bill Stevens (SS) and Freshman Rod Etheridge (TC) hooked up in a 145-lb. battle with Southpaw Stevens taking a close nod.

Another solid scrap found KT's Dick Bender outlasting PKA's Wally Hall in the 145-lb. junior division.

Novice Tourney Results

Afternoon bouts: 145 lb.—Tony Russo (KA) dec. Gene Unger (SAE); Jim Benners (SP) dec. Lloyd Neutz (LCA); Bob Snyder (TC) def. Marcie Ravilla (PKA, forfeit).

Tom Cuffe Awaits Decision On East-West Shrine Game

Center Tom Cuffe still is awaiting word from the West's selection committee on playing in the East-West Shrine game in San Francisco, Dec. 29.

Coach Bob Bronzan nominated Cuffe last week.

The dependable senior's chances appear to be pretty slim since last year two outstanding Spartan gridgers, End Billy Wilson and Fullback Harry Beck, were eligible for the game but were not chosen.

As of yesterday, ten players remain to be selected for the West squad.

Cuffe already has been selected on the Associated Press All-Pacific Coast football team. He is ranked on the third team defensive unit as a linebacker. Other prominent gridgers on this third team include Burl Toler and Joe Scudero of USF, Don Robison of California and Dick Sprague of the University of Washington.

Halfback Archie Chagonjian is listed on the Associated Press honorable mention team.

Middleweight Frank Gutierrez of Delta Sigma Phi became the first casualty of the 1951 Novice Boxing tournament—before he entered the ring!

Gutierrez, a San Francisco boy, was scheduled to meet Tom Dunlap of Kappa Alpha on last night's card, but he couldn't.

Tuesday afternoon he was working out in the boxing room over in the Men's gym. Two wrestlers accidentally crashed into him from behind. Result: Either a sprained ankle or a fractured ankle.

Gutierrez will have to postpone his fistic ambitions for awhile. Doctor's orders!

Robinson Attends Placement Confab

Miss Doris Robinson, director of teacher placement, will travel to San Francisco today for a three-day conference of the National Institutional Teacher Placement association.

Conference sessions will be held today, tomorrow and Saturday in the Hotel Cliff. Dr. Vernon A. Ouellette, placement officer, will attend tomorrow's meeting as a guest of the group.

Balگوoyen Is New President Of Employees

Local chapter of the California State Employees' association recently elected officers for 1952, according to Miss Doris Robinson, director of teacher placement.

The newly elected officers are: president, Theodore Balگوoyen, instructor in speech; vice-president, Dr. Vernon Ouellette, director of business and technical placement; and secretary-treasurer, Miss Robinson.

Members of the executive council are James N. Casey, assistant professor of industrial arts; Mrs. Patricia Fern, supervising clerk in the Business Manager's office; Victor Jansen, engineer; Dr. Richard W. Kilby, assistant professor of psychology; Dr. G. A. McCallum, professor of biology; and Dr. Glenn A. Reed, assistant professor of English.

According to Miss Robinson, the council will take office on Jan. 1.

Will Discuss Mission Field

Students interested in the foreign mission field and its recent developments are invited to meet the Rev. Donald M. Wilson tomorrow at 12:30 p.m. at the Student Y, S. Seventh street, according to Rev. James A. Martin, executive secretary.

Speaking with a background of five years experience in China and Japan, the Rev. Wilson will bring a message of missionary developments and opportunities in the Orient.

Students who wish further information not given at Thursday's informal discussion may arrange personal interviews in the afternoon by signing up in advance at the Student Y.

Mr. Wilson has been engaged in evangelistic work in the North Kyushu area of Japan and lived in Fukuoka. He has been in active contact with student groups in Japan and is aided with an ability to write as well as speak their language.

A graduate of Lutheran Theological seminary in Philadelphia, he also attended Yale university.

Fairness System Receives Attention

Elmo Robinson, Fairness committee chairman, yesterday reported that the group recently received an inquiry from a representative of a national magazine concerning the committee's work.

The magazine, according to Robinson, is preparing an article on cheating among college students and expressed interest in the Fairness committee's preventative work. Because publication of the article still is tentative, the name of the magazine was withheld.

Robinson also revealed that the committee now is investigating a complaint by a student of unfair examination practices by an instructor. He explained that names of all students involved in such complaints are held in confidence, and that the Fairness committee serves only in an advisory capacity in such cases.

Students May Sign For 'Reed' Course; One Unit Offered

Any student who wishes to help with the gathering and editing of material and other work for "The Reed," campus literary magazine, should apply at the Journalism table during registration for entrance to the course, Dr. James O. Wood, adviser for the publication, announced yesterday.

Students will receive one unit for completing the necessary requirements of the course, he said.

Dr. Wood added that the group will meet one hour a week at a time to be arranged after registration. He said the time selected will be one which will be convenient for all members of the class.

"The Reed" appears annually on campus during spring quarter and is sponsored by Pegasus, college literary honor society, he added.

Dr. Esther Shephard also is an adviser for the publication.

Two Changes Made on Staff

Two changes in Library personnel were made this week, Miss Joyce Backus, head librarian, announced yesterday.

Mrs. Bernadine Beutler now is working part-time in the arts section. She replaced Miss Virginia Walker, who resigned due to her impending marriage, which will take place sometime this month in Bombay, India.

Mrs. Carole Prince was added to the staff of the Reserve bookroom.

UC Zoology Professor Will Speak Tomorrow

Adventures on his recent expedition to Colombia will be told by Dr. Robert C. Stebbins, professor of zoology and head of the University of California's Herpetology department, in a talk tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in Room S210, Dr. Ralph A. Smith, associate professor of zoology, said yesterday.

Herpetology is the branch of zoology relating to reptiles, their structure, classification and habits.

"Herpetological Investigations in Colombia" is the title of Dr. Stebbins' talk. He did extensive collecting and field study as a part of his research for the University of California on his recent trip. He will use kodachrome slides to illustrate significant points.

Dr. Stebbins is the author of many scientific papers. His latest book, "The Amphibians of Western North America," will soon be issued by the University of California Press. Dr. Smith believes that it will be the most comprehensive reference work extant on this group of vertebrates.

The herpetology class zoology 115 is sponsoring the address. Following the talk and an open symposium, the group will retire to the herpetology laboratory, Room S201, to inspect pertinent specimens.

All students are invited to hear Dr. Stebbins' talk. Dr. Smith especially urges students in the fields of vertebrate zoology and ecology to attend.

Refreshments will be served.
